

PRO BONO MEMBERSHIP

Practising Law Institute is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing the highest-quality training to attorneys and other professionals — and pro bono is at the core of our mission.

Benefits of PLI's Pro Bono Membership

- Unlimited access to a wide selection of live programming, including webcasts and One-Hour Briefings
- Over 10,000 hours of on-demand programs, including MP3s and MP4s
- Access to PLI's Interactive Learning Center
- Use of My Credit Tracker, a tool that manages MCLE credits earned through PLI and other providers, offering an instant view of compliance progress
- Receive CLE credit from PLI free of charge

To Qualify

Pro Bono Membership may be granted for one year to organizations that:

- Have IRC Section 501(c)(3) status
- Have one or more on-staff attorneys (not volunteers)
- Have as their primary purpose providing direct pro bono legal services to their community
- Do not primarily engage in lobbying or issue advocacy
- Agree to the PLI Pro Bono Membership terms and conditions

If your organization does not meet these requirements, but you are engaged in pro bono client representation or work for a nonprofit organization, you may be eligible for a scholarship to individual programs. For information about PLI's Scholarship program, please visit <https://learning.pli.edu/scholarship>.
